A Few words about our College

“Atmagyandipobava” - Be your Own Light of Knowledge

Krishnagar Women's College, founded in 1958, owes its inception to the influx of women from erstwhile East Pakistan who were in need of education after India wins back its freedom. The urge felt by the educated circle of Krishnagar led to the establishment of this one and only College for women in the district that initially started its academic journey in Krishnagar Government College and then shifted to an old building located in Basanta Chatterjee Lane. Soon, the construction of the present College building started with the financial assistance from West Bengal Government under the able leadership of its first founder Principal, Professor Dipti Bose. Since then, the College is marching forward with the sole intention to impart quality education to a cross-section of women most of whom are first-generation learners and hail from the marginalized section of society. The College was first affiliated to Calcutta University and it came under the aegis of Kalyani University in 2000. The College has been accredited by NAAC first with a grade of B++ and with a B+ in its second cycle.

The Institution has a number of infrastructural facilities to offer to the students an eco-friendly beautiful green campus of 3.9 acre in the heart of the city , dedicated teachers, 24×7 CCTV surveillance, a well-stocked automated Library with e-journals and OPAC facility, well equipped Science Laboratories, Classes with ICT tools, Computer Laboratory, Free Wi-Fi, Cheap Canteen, providing hygienic food, safe and pure drinking water, cycle stand, toilet for differently abled persons, clean Hostel for students, expansive playground and attractive sports facilities and a medicinal plant garden.
